UDC Shown Gift Books, Hear AHS Librarian

Twelve UDC members and two guests were present at the home of Mrs. G. L. Doss on Friday, Nov. 15 to hear Miss Julia Asher, the Appomattox High School librarian speak on the Battle of Chatanooga.

Two books presented to the county library in honor of UDC members were shown to the group. One, "Robert E. Lee, the Man and the Soldier" is a pictorial biography by Phillip Van Doren Stern. It contains 350 illustrations and 80,000 words of text including informative data about historical Appomattox. The other is "The Golden Book of the Civil War" by Charles Plato.

Next planned meeting for the United Daughters of the Confederacy is Thursday, December 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Russell Paulette, near Evergreen.

Co-Sostesses at Friday's meetinr were Mrs. Charlie Bagby and Mrs. G. L. Doss who served coconut cake and coffee. Mrs. Robert Covington, of Roanoke, sister-in-law of Mrs. Bagby and Mrs. M. G. Stimpson were guests.

Thieves Steal Safe From Mkt.

A safe containing at least $250 was stolen early Thursday morning, November 14 from West End Market. Investigator R. David Jones said that the store was "broken into by unknown subjects." The automatic door at the front of the market had been pried open, Jones said, and a safe weighing more than 400 pounds removed from the business office.

Partitioning walls of the small office were damaged in the attempt to remove the safe. About thirty cartons of cigarettes apparently were taken, also, Jones said. When manager Ralph King arrived Thursday morning, he found paper scattered over the front of the store and discovered the two rear doors open. The thieves presumably had lifted off wooden bars used in reenforce the locks there. Two grocery carts were found on a hillside at the rear of the store.

Investigator Jones and State Trooper J. A. Crawford are being aided by local officers in their efforts to locate the safe and the persons responsible for the theft.

Chatanooga Battle Now 100 Years Old

A battle nearly 100 years old was chief topic for the November program of the Appomattox chapter, UDC. This was the Battle of Chatanooga, led by General William T. Sherman. According to Miss Julia Asher, who presented the program, Sherman, a West Point graduate in 1850's first resigned his army commission to become a teacher.

In a prophetic statement he said, "unless the people, both North and South learn more moderation, we shall see sights in the way of Civil War." When war was declared he donned his uniform as a Northern general.

The Battle of Chatanooga was part of Sherman's "march to the sea," and began on November 24 when General Sherman's corps was brought over the Tennessee River, near the mouth of Chickamauga Creek, and formed on the east side. The battle began at 1 p.m. and by nightfall the heights attacked were in General Sherman's hands and fortified against counter attacks. However, the main force of General Sherman and Grant. Sherman had captured only a detached hill.

About 3:30 p.m. on November 25, the center of the Army of the Cumberland under command of General George H. Thomas advanced on Confederate rifle pits at the foot of Missionary Ridge. Federal Troops were ordered to await orders, but suddenly without orders, the whole line of the Army of the Cumberland dashed up the ridge. Two lines of Confederate entrenchments were carried at once, the crest stormed and by nightfall the Confederate Army retreated. General Bragg lost 8,684 men killed, wounded or taken as prisoners out of 34,000. General Grant lost 6,000 men out of an army of 60,000.

Peace Corps Offers "Job At The Top"

Starting at the top is nice work if you can get it and you may get it if you apply for the Peace Corps. J. A. Smith, County Agent for Appomattox County announced today that fourteen more Peace Corps Volunteers have been requested by Nepal, a relatively small country North of India which sits at the top of the world.

Nepal's chief magistrate, King Mahendra, has asked for American foresters to work with the Royal Nepalese Forest Service. They will assist local foresters in taking the country's first inventory on forest stands and guide the Service in setting up an effective national Forest program.

While a B. S. in forestry is highly desirable, applicants with two or more years at a recognized school of forestry will be considered. Married couples, who have no children under 18 years of age, will also be considered if the wives qualify for one of several appropriate skill categories. Persons interested in this program should complete Peace Corps Volunteer Questionnaries as soon as possible and mail them to the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525. They should also plan to take the next Peace Corps Placement Test scheduled at Post Offices throughout the U. S. during the first week of December. All Peace Corps Volunteers will receive living expenses during their two years assignment and a termination allowance of $1,800 at the end of their service.

Dinner, Gift Honor Birthday

The young people of Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church held a dinner Sunday evening to mark the pastor's birthday, and also to announce a change in leadership in the Junior and Junior young people groups. Both the new and the former adult leaders were present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Chandler are the new adult leaders for the Pioneer Fellowship, succeeding Miss Margaret Bragg and Mrs. T. DeWitt Evans, who have served recently in this capacity.

The pastor, Rev. M. G. Stimpson, will be the leader of the Senior Youth Fellowship, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. T. DeWitt Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Gilbert. Mr. Evans will continue as substitute advisor when needed.

Record Book Given

Reverend M. G. Stimpson was presented with a birthday cake and a pastors' record book bound in leather with gold tipped pages. The presentation followed a dinner of roast beef, baked potatoes, vegetable casserole, salad, and a special birthday cake baked by Mrs. D. E. Caldwell and decrated by Mrs. Nellie T. Schweizer, who was also a guest for the evening.

Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was held November 14 to honor Mrs. Bessie Smith. Those present were Mrs. Himesey Ingo, Jr., and family, Joyce, Marion, Jane Kenneth, and Larry and Carolyn Carter. Also, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Sr. and Harold, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Jr., Joe, Becky, and Mrs. Vina Kress.

Vera 4-H

The Vera 4-H was held Nov. 13, 1963. Our guest speakers were Mr. David Smith and Mr. Charles Torrence.

Mr. Smith talked about our forest. He gave several things for us to remember as break matches, crush cigarettes, and drown our camp fires.

Mr. Torrence spoke on the Safety of Guns. Always check our guns before bringing them in. Never take anyone's word that a gun is not loaded.

The meeting was over with everyone standing and saying the 4-H pledge.

Seventh-day Adventist Church
Appeal

The current Ingathering Campaign for missions is the 66th annual solicitation of the Adventist Church and is well under way in the Appomattox and Cumberland Court House churches.

R. H. Broderson, of Staunton, missions secretary for the Potomac conference of Adventist has given specific instructions to the 30 local leaders, who are participating in this drive.

This annual appeal is sponsored by the church in behalf of welfare, disaster and educational medical and mission work in nearly all countries of the world.

On a world basis volunteer Adventist workers in 1962 gave 8,253,649 hours in welfare services to 7,224,068 persons, more than 1,851,366, in cash, some 7,216,109 articles of clothing and 4,828,101 food baskets were contributed. Approximately 50 per cent of this aid was given in North America.

When we think of literally misery men and women and children, of homeless, illiterate hungry men, women and children, stirs a certain compassion in all of our hearts. May you demonstrate the deep compassion that is in your heart when a volunteer solicitor calls at your door.
